

Shannon Marie Callahan Clark is a graduate of Xavier University's Montessori Education program and is certified to teach Pre-kindergarten through third grade. She received her Masters of Education in August of 2007 from Xavier University. She received her Bachelor's of Science from the University of Cincinnati in Horticulture. The fall of 2009 will be Shannon Clark's third year as a 3 to 6 Teacher at Kennedy Heights Montessori Center. What drew her to Kennedy Heights Montessori was working in a school which values diversity and the fundamentals of the Montessori philosophy. Prior to working at KHMC, Shannon had been working as a substitute teacher at Cincinnati Public Schools. She enjoys spending her free time with her husband Jeff, daughter Emma, and son Victor.
